ARTICLES,

OF THE

Association Library Company,

OF

PHILADELPHIA.

THE second day of February in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and fifty seven, we who have here unto subscribed our names and affix'd our seals, desirous to advance and promote knowledge, and leiterature in the city of PHILADELPHIA in the province of PENNSYLVANIA, having plac'd together several sums of money, wherewith to form a joint stock for the purchasing a collection of useful books, to compose a library in the said city of PHILADELPHIA; of which money, we of the number of the first forty five subscribers, have advanced twenty shillings a piece, and each of the rest of us, the several sums set to our names hereunto subscrib'd respectively; do hereby mutually covenant and agree, each one for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators, respecpectively, to and with the residue of the subscribers aforesaid, and every of them, their and Introduction.

every

every of their executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, by theſe preſents, in manner following, that is to ſay.

Money to be collected to be paid into the Treaſurer's Hands.

I. THAT the money, ſo by us collected and advanced and all other monies to be collected and paid for the eſtabliſhing and encreaſing our ſaid library or the ſervice thereof, ſhall from time to time be put into the hands of the preſent treaſurer, or into the hands of ſome other fit perſon to be elected for treaſurer, as herein after mentioned; for the collecting and purchaſing of ſuch books, and for ſuch other ſervices, appertaining to the library, as the committee of directors of the ſame library, to be conſtituted as herein after mentioned, ſhall think fit to chooſe and direct.

All new Members to ſubſcribe hereto.

II. THAT no ſubſcription ſhall be admitted, after the firſt forty five ſubſcribers, nor any perſon entitled to a ſhare in the books and effects of the company, nor received as a member thereof, without firſt being allowed of, and received as ſuch by a majority of the ſaid committee of directors, and without firſt ſubſcribing his name to this inſtrument, with the ſum of his ſubſcription money added thereto, and ſealing the ſame with his ſeal in the preſence of two or more ſufficient witneſſes, and paying into the hands of the company's treaſurer ſo much, or ſuch a ſum of money as (the ſame being added to the value of the whole collection of books and effects, regard being had by the preſiding committee of directors to loſs, wear and unforeſeen accidents, which is hereby committed to their care and judgment) will at the time of each ſubſcription, render the ſubſcriber's ſhare of equal value with any of the reſt.

III. THAT upon the payment of the ſubſcription money and all other monies, hereafter to be paid for the ſervice of the library, the party ſhall receive of the company's treaſurer a certificate under his hand and the company's ſeal, containing the name of the perſon, and the ſum paid, the time when, and the account or uſe for which he paid it.

Certificate given for all money paid

IV. THAT for the better preſervation of a juſt equality, which it is hereby agreed ſhall ſubſiſt among the parties hereto, no one perſon ſhall pay more or other than ſuch a proportion as aforeſaid, of the value of the library and effects, nor ſhall he be entituled to more than one or an equal ſhare with one of the reſidue of the parties in company as aforeſaid, nor ſhall any one being ſo entituled, accept of a further bargain, ſale or conveyance or aſſurance from another; but if any member in partnerſhip aforeſaid, ſhall as executor or adminiſtrator of another, or by any other means come to a plurality of ſhares in the books and effects aforeſaid, he ſhall immediately on receipt of an order from the committee of directors, transfer and convey ſo much thereof, as will reduce his part to ſuch an equality as aforeſaid, unto ſome fit perſon, not already entituled to any ſhare; the perſon to be ſuch as the committee ſhall approve of.

A juſt Equality preſerv'd.

Teſtator's Share aſſignd.

V. That every of our reſpective executors and adminiſtrators ſhall, immediately upon the receipt of any ſuch order of the committee as aforeſaid, transfer or convey his teſtator or deſcendants part in company as aforeſaid, at the rate aforeſaid, unto ſuch perſon as the ſame committee ſhall approve of.

Number of Subſcribers.

No Member without ſigning Articles.

VI. That the number of ſubſcribers ſhall not exceed two hundred, at any one time in the whole, and that no perſon ſhall be of the company, nor have any right or intereſt in their library and effects (whether he come in primarily, by paying a part of the ſubſcription monies to the treaſurer, or by purchaſe of another, which any perſon may do, but not without the allowance of the committee of directors at the rate aforeſaid) without firſt ſubſcribing hereunto as foreſaid in perſon, or by proxy, legally and ſufficiently authoriz'd.

Committee's allowance

VII. That the committees allowance, or approbation of each member into partnerſhip, ſhall be ſignified by their permitting him to ſubſcribe hereunto as aforeſaid.

Annual payments.

VIII. That we the ſubſcribers hereunto, for the encreaſing our ſaid library and the ſervice thereof, ſhall and will each one of us, our executors or adminiſtrators reſpectively further advance and pay into the hands of the treaſurer ten ſhillings a year, at the day to be appointed by our committees annually and ſo from time to time, until alienation of our reſpective

refpective parts in company aforefaid, according to the purport hereof.

How Members forfeit their Shares.

IX. But if any fubfcriber hereto, his executors or adminiftrators fhall neglect to pay any of the fums of ten fhillings per annum, as aforefaid at the day, fo to be appointed for the payment thereof, fuch fubfcriber, his executors or adminiftrators fhall be admitted by the prefiding committee, any time within two years next after the day of payment, to pay in manner following, that is to fay, the fum of two fhillings and fix pence for each quarter of the firft year after fuch neglect, and the fum of five fhillings for each quarter of the fecond year after fuch neglect as aforefaid, making in the whole the fum of three pounds, in lieu of thirty fhillings, the three annual payments neglected, and fo in proportion for any part thereof, which if fuch perfon fhall longer neglect, or if any perfon having more than fuch an equal fhare as aforefaid, fhall neglect to comply with the director's order for the reduction thereof to an equality with one of the reft by fale as aforefaid; then in every fuch cafe the party fo neglecting or refufing, his executors, adminiftrators or affigns, fhall from thenceforth forever after be excluded from the faid partnerfhip, and from any fhare, right or benefit in the library, books or effects aforefaid, and be difabled from making any conveyance thereof afterwards, and the committee of directors caufing their clerk to enter the occa-occafion, the delinquents fhare and right in the premifes fhall become forfeit and devolve upon the committee of directors, for them to transfer and make over to fuch perfon as they fhall think fit, the better to keep up the number of the partners at the real value of their fhares to be eftimated as aforefaid, and to be paid to the treafurer for the ufe of the library; provided neverthelefs that if any member fhould be inclin'd to entail his fhare, he fhall have liberty fo to do upon his executor's or adminiftrator's paying to the director's for the ufe of the company the fum of ten pounds, which fhall be deemed fufficient fatisfaction for his yearly payment of ten Shillings as long as this library fubfifts.

Monies advanced how allowed.

X. THAT if any fubfcriber, for the more expeditious raifing a ftock for the better encouragement of the ends hereby intended, fhall be willing to advance his ten fhillings per annum before hand for a number of years to come, he fhall be permitted fo to do, and upon proper entry thereof in the directors minutes, and a certificate delivered him by the clerk, he fhall be excus'd until fuch number of years be expir'd.

Term of this Partnerfhip.

XI. THAT we the faid fubfcribers will be and continue in partnerfhip, and hold our library of books and effects thereunto appertaining in common, for and during the fpace of one hundred years from the day of the date hereof.

XII.

XII. THAT during the fame fpace, we will not demand of our prefent treafurer, nor of any other perfon, hereafter to be our treafurer, according to this prefent conftitution, rendition of monies aforefaid, nor of monies hereafter to be collected and paid for the common ufe of the fubfcribers in company aforefaid, nor demand, or feek to have partition thereof, or of the books effects to be therewith purchas'd; but that the fame books, effects and the monies alfo after payment thereof to our treafurer, fhall be and remain at all times hereafter during the continuance of this partnerfhip, the indiftinquifhable property of all the members of the faid company, the fubfcribers aforefaid, under the order and direction of the committee of directors aforefaid, and to and for the feveral and refpective ufes and purpofes herein after limitted, directed and declared; yet fubject to the provifos and conditions herein contain'd, and to no other ufe, intent, nor purpofe whatfoever.

No Rendition of Books nor Effects.

XIII. THAT when and as often as any one of us the faid fubfcribers fhall be chofen one of the company's directors or a treafurer, and refufe to ferve, fuch member fo refufing, fhall forfeit and pay into the hands of the treafurer the fum of five fhillings (for the ufe of the library aforefaid) and not be obliged either to pay or ferve for the fpace of four years then next enfuing; and alfo that when any one of us the fubfcribers aforefaid, fhall be chofen

Officers chofen refufing to ferve pay a Fine.

Thoſe that ſerve to do it faithfully.

XIV. THAT for diſtinction ſake the ſubſcribers in company now and hereafter at all times, are and ſhall be called THE ASSOCIATION LIBRARY COMPANY OF PHILADELPHIA, and ſhall have a common ſeal with this device,

Name of the Company and their Seal.

to be ſecurely kept in the library, under the care of the directors, whoſe clerk, upon the annual expiration of his office, or ſuch other perſon as they ſhall appoint ſhall deliver up the keys of its depoſite to the ſucceeding committee.

XV.

XV. THAT for the better preſervation of order and government among the preſent and future ſubſcribers, and in the uſe, application and management of the monies, library, books and effects aforeſaid, they the ſaid ſubſcribers ſhall perſonally or by proxy, annually attend at the place of election in the ſaid city of Philadelphia on the firſt day of May in every year, during the continuance of this partnerſhip, unleſs it happen on a Sunday, and then to meet the day following as aforeſaid, and that as many as ſo meet and appear to be duly qualified, ſhall proceed to the choice of a perſon of the number of the ſubſcribers hereto, to be the company's treaſurer, and ſeven other perſons of the ſame ſubſcribers to be a committee of directors for the year next enſuing, and ſo from year to year (as hereafter expreſt) during the continuance of the partnerſhip aforeſaid; the place of election to be agreed on by the directors of the current year, and to be notified by their clerk ten days before the day of election by printed advertiſements. The electors to chuſe by written tickets, each containing the names of the ſeven perſons voted directors, and the name of the perſon voted treaſurer, and the perſons of the company of the ſubſcribers aforeſaid, who ſhall thereupon appear to have a majority of votes, ſhall be the company's treaſurer and the committee of directors reſpectively for the year next enſuing.

How Elections are to be carried on.

The Elections to be advertiſed.

Rules at Elections.

XVI. THAT it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the electors aforeſaid, when met at any time before the hour of three in the afternoon of the day of election, to appoint perſons to aſſiſt the clerk in gathering the votes, and entering and numbering the names of the electors and perſons voted for and other ſervices appertaining to the election, and to appoint and direct any method and rule in proceeding to and making the election, ſo as they appoint or direct nothing to the prejudice of the authority of any votes, nor infringe the conſtitution hereby eſtabliſhed, in any of the branches or parts thereof.

Clerk to be elected till found inconvenient.

XVII. THAT the ſubſcribers hereto ſhall elect one of their number annually for clerk to the company, but if it ſhall hereafter be found more to the advantage of the company to hire a clerk or librarian, then and in all ſuch caſes, the committee of directors are hereby impowered to employ ſuch perſon as they ſhall think fit, who is hereby required to collect the votes at the elections aforeſaid, and ſhall faithfully enter in a book to be kept for that purpoſe, the names of the quantity of electors and the number of the names of the candidates, according to the tickets, and the ſaid committee of directors are hereby impowered to add to and increaſe the number of directors as occaſion may require at all times hereafter: provided neverthelefs that in the whole, they ſhall at no one time, exceed the number of ten.

The Duty of the Clerk at Elections.

Number of Directors to be encreaſed.

XVIII.

XVIII. THAT, if any perſon hereafter to be elected to be of the committee of directors ſhall happen to die, or depart this province, ſo as to be abſent for the ſpace of two months in any of the firſt ten months of the year for which he is ſo elected of a committee as aforeſaid, or if within the ſame year or term of his office, he ſhall be confin'd by ſickneſs or otherwiſe rendered incapable of executing the office of a director, according to the true meaning hereof, the reſt of the directors as often as occaſion ſhall require in any of the caſes aforeſaid, ſhall proceed in their duty and office without him, or if they think fit, they ſhall nominate ſome other ſuitable perſon to ſupply the place of a director, until the next ſucceeding election.

Directors dying or abſent how ſupplied.

XIX. THAT if any perſon to be elected the company's treaſurer or clerk as aforeſaid, ſhall abſent himſelf from his office for the ſpace of thirty days, or ſhall be otherwiſe rendered incapable or neglect his office or duty of treaſurer or clerk in the judgement of the committee of directors for the time being, it ſhall and may be lawful for the committee to diſplace ſuch perſon from any longer continuance in his ſaid office, and the committee cauſing their clerk to make a minute for the purpoſe, containing their reaſons for diſplacing ſuch perſon, he ſhall thereupon, and from thenceforth ceaſe to be the treaſurer or clerk as aforeſaid and ſhall upon notice thereof, adjuſt Treaſurer or Clerk abſent or rendered incapable how ſupplied.

juſt and ſettle with the committee, and pay and deliver the company's money, books and effects, to ſuch perſon, as the committee ſhall order and appoint, and in that caſe and ſo often, as the treaſurer or clerk ſhall depart this life, the directors ſhall thereupon nominate another fit perſon of the company of ſubſcribers hereto aforeſaid (but not of their own number) to be treaſurer or clerk in the ſtead of him ſo diſplaced or deceaſed, until the next ſucceeding annual election; but when a new choice is to be made of treaſurer or clerk in any of theſe caſes after thefirſt day of May, Anno Domini 1757, the perſon, who at the then laſt preceeding election, had the greateſt number of votes next the higheſt (if alive willing and capable) ſhall be ſubſtituted treaſurer or clerk, for which purpoſe the clerk preſiding at elections ſhall preſerve the votes.

How the Treaſurer or Clerk is to be appointed.

XX. That every perſon ſo choſen to be the company's treaſurer and clerk immediately upon entering into their office, ſhall receive of the preceeding treaſurer and clerk, their heirs, executors or adminiſtrators the company's caſh and book of accounts, and all other their books and effects, each of them giving his receipt for what he receives, and ſhall alſo enter into an obligation in double the value that doth or probably may come into his hands, during the continuance of his office, as near as can be eſtimated by the committee

Thoſe Articles to be kept in the Library.

XXIII. That this preſent inſtrument ſhall be depoſited in the library for the inſpection and peruſal of all perſons therein concerned, who ſhall alſo have recourſe to the journal of the directors, the minutes and entries of their clerks, with the treaſurer's accounts, and all other books and papers belonging to the company, and may, if the directors think fit, take copies thereof.

How thoſe preſent Articles are to be altered.

XXIV. And it is hereby finally concluded and agreed by and between all the ſubſcribers in company aforeſaid, each one for himſelf, his heirs, executors and adminiſtrators reſpectively, that if any committee of directors hereafter to be elected as aforeſaid, ſhall think it needful to apply to the legiſlature for the better eſtabliſhment of the library and company aforeſaid, and the order and government of the ſame; or to encreaſe the number of the company beyond the limitations aforeſaid, or to enlarge the time and term of this partnerſhip, or to diſolve the ſame, and make ſale and diſpoſe of or divide their library and effects, or to make any other alteration in this preſent conſtitution, then, in any ſuch caſe, or in any other caſe of great concernment to the company, the clerk by the committee's directions direction notifying the occaſion, ſhall publiſh an advertiſement for the purpoſe in the manner before directed for the annual meetings, to the end that all perſons concerned, may meet if they think fit and aſſiſt the committee with their advice, and whatſoever appears to the committee to be concluded upon as the general ſenſe of the meeting, they ſhall cauſe to be minuted and entered by their clerk, and whatſoever ſhall be ſo concluded and entered as aforeſaid, and reported by the committee, ſhall be concluſive and binding to all perſons therein concerned, ſo as three-fourths of their number met, in perſon or by proxy, duly conſtituted, come to ſome concluſion or agreement as aforeſaid.

What Part of the Company, muſt meet on the Occaſion.

XXV. And to prevent unneceſſary debates, during the continuance of this partnerſhip, it is agreed that whenever the committee of directors ſhall find it neceſſary to increaſe their own number, that they ſhall be elected annually by the ſubſcribers hereto, according to the form herein expreſſed in the XV article, and further we do hereby agree, that the committee to do buſineſs ſhall encreaſe in proportion to the number of directors, according to the tenor of the XXII article.

Committee to do Buſineſs to increaſe.

IN WITNESS whereof, we the ſaid partners in company have in manner aforeſaid, ſubſcribed our names and affixed our ſeals ſeals unto theſe preſents, the ſame being contained in four ſheets of paper, made up in the form of a book, and connected together with a label under our common ſeal aforeſaid.

ASSOCIATION LIBRARY COMPANY · CATALOGUE · PHILADELPHIA, 1765

A number of other subscription libraries patterned after the Library Company had less successful histories. The Amicable Library Company, founded in 1757, merged with the Union Library Company in 1766. The Union Library was in turn incorporated with the Library Company of Philadelphia in 1769. Thus the books of both libraries are to be found among those of the library.
